

A Dickens Experience

Old New Castle, DE - December 12-13, 2014

"A Dickens Experience" will transport visitors back to mid-nineteenth century England to experience an interactive version of Charles Dickens' classic novella, A Christmas Carol. The festivities will feature street theater, bell ringing, carolers, and street vendors offering up old-fashioned treats. Meet members of the Cratchit Family, including Tiny Tim, and look out for Ebenezer Scrooge as he makes his way through the cobblestone streets. Fezziwig's Ball, hosted by Mr. Fezziwig himself, is scheduled for Friday evening, December 12 at The Arsenal. Enjoy refreshments, dancing, and merriment while donning your finest holiday attire.

On December 13, proper English Tea will take place at the newly-renovated Arsenal.

Reservations are required for Fezziwig's Ball and/or English Tea. Contact the NCHS to reserve your spot at 302-322-2794!

Contact the Clarion Hotel – The Belle for special weekend rates at 302-428-1000

The New Castle Historical Society - www.newcastlehistory.org