

New Castle City Councilperson Ted Megginson

Ted Megginson has served on the New Castle City Council for more than two years, having first been elected in 2009.

Mr. Megginson is retired from Plumber and Pipefitters Local 74, where he served as a journeyman, foreman and general foreman.

Mr. Megginson was born and raised in New Castle and lives on Tremont Street with his wife June. They have three children, Maureen, Jerry and John, and one grandchild Connor, all of whom live in New Castle.