

Teel Petty, New Castle City Councilperson

Councilperson Petty has served the city of New Castle for more than ten years, having been first elected in April of 2004. During Mrs. Petty's tenure she has received certificates of Professional Development and Training offered through the Institute for Public Administration at the University of Delaware.

Mrs. Petty is a member of the Delaware League of Local Governments, the New Castle Historical Society, serves on the New Castle Dike Advisory Committee, is C.P.R. and Delaware Food Bank certified, she is also active with Delaware Historical Society and Preservation Delaware.

As President of the Buttonwood Civic Association Councilperson Petty lead the effort to restore the Buttonwood Colored School Museum and Community Center, and is presently working to restore the Banks Building in downtown New Castle.

Councilperson Petty presently serves as the liaison for Parks & Recreation for the City of New Castle. Councilperson Petty lives in the community of Buttonwood with her husband, former New Castle City Chief of Police, Eugene C. Petty.