

Michael J. Quaranta -- Mayor, City of New Castle

Michael J. Quaranta (Mike) was elected to the Office of Mayor in April, 2019. Prior to this election, he served two years on the City Council, and before that on both the Planning Commission and Historic Area Commission. He and his wife Michelle own a small business in the city, and open their historic home for fundraisers, holidays and events.

Mike holds degrees in political science and public policy, and has been a staff member in the United States Senate and a Chief of Staff to former Delaware U.S. Representative Michael N. Castle of Delaware. He is currently President of the Delaware State Chamber of Commerce.

Mike and Michelle have four children: Matt, Frank, Renee and Marie.
