

RESOLUTION 2019-19

A Resolution to Revise Certain Parking Regulations at the City Parking Lot Located at Ferry Cutoff and Delaware Street

WHEREAS, the public parking lot owned by the City of New Castle (the “City”) at the intersection of Ferry Cutoff and Delaware Street is currently posted with a 2 hour parking limit, has no designated handicapped parking spaces and the parking spaces that exist are not clearly marked; and

WHEREAS, the City desires to remove the 2 hour parking limitation, provide for two parking spaces reserved for handicapped parking and otherwise paint lines to clearly identify the various parking spaces.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED by the City Council that the 2 hour parking time limit regulation associated with the public parking lot owned by the City at the intersection of Ferry Cutoff and Delaware Street (the “Parking Lot”) is hereby rescinded and the City Administrator is directed to cause the removal of all signage referencing the 2 hour parking time limit at the Parking Lot; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the two parking spaces in the Parking Lot that are closest to Ferry Cutoff are hereby designated as unreserved handicapped parking spots and the City Administrator is directed to cause appropriate signage installed and ground markings painted at those locations to identify them as handicapped parking spots; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Administrator shall also cause appropriate lines to be painted on the Parking Lot to identify all other remaining parking spaces in the Parking Lot.

Passed this 14th day of May, 2019
